OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 22nd July 1955

No. 22-Pres./55.—The President is pleased to award the Ashoka Chakra, Class III, for an act of gallantry to:—

Captain Mohan Shantaram Patkar, Commander, Indian Airlines Corporation.

On the 12th November, 1954, Captain Patkar was the Commander of Viking VT-AZA on the Bombay-Delhi evening service. The aircraft took off from Bombay at 19-30 hours, and was about 94 miles from Kotah when a loud noise brought to notice the fact that the port engine was on fire and had ceased to function. An attempt to feather this engine failed, but the fire was brought under control. An SOS message was radiated to Bombay and Delhi; and Captain Patkar changed course for Kotah, where the airport was asked to keep night landing facilities ready.

Despite maximum power being extracted from the starboard engine, the normal cruising height of 9000 ft. could not be maintained and the aircraft gradually lost height until a stage had been reached when it was down to 500 ft.

The hilly nature of the country over which he was flying left Captain Patkar no alternative but to pilot the aircraft over the river bed and follow its course through the narrow valley. This he did with great skill and coolness. When the aircraft was some 10 miles from Kotah and had dropped to an altitude of 400 ft., the starboard engine began to give trouble and it seemed that it might at any moment stop functioning. This engine had in fact almost packed up when the aircraft was over the airport but Captain Patkar made a tight circuit and landed safely. The runway at Kotah is hardly 1400 yards and a Viking requires a minimum of 1750 yards in which to land. Added to this formidable handicap was the fact that the landing had to be made at night with one engine out of commission.

Throughout this emergency Captain Patkar showed great calmness and presence of mind in what was, in fact, a very serious situation. His cool-headedness inspired confidence in the passengers who showed no signs of panic.
